

Bibliography of Books on Hinduism for Parents

These are only some of the books that Devi Parvati has previewed and studied that can give parents an understanding of some of the concepts that their campers are learning at HHSC. They can be found on Amazon.com. We hope these will be of help to you in supporting your children's growth and knowledge of Hinduism throughout the year, not only at camp.

Hinduism – Beginners Guides – by Klaus K. Klostermaier

Hinduism Made Easy – Shalu Sharma

Hinduism – Frequently Asked Questions – Chinmaya Mission Trust

The Essentials of Hinduism – by Swami Bhaskarananda – Vedanta Society of Western Washington

An Introduction to Hinduism – by Gavin Flood (college level difficulty)

The Symbolism of Hindu Gods and Rituals – by A. Parthasarathy, Vedanta Life Institute, Mumbai

Ganesha, The Auspicious...The Beginning – by Shakunthala Jagannathan and Nanditha Krishna: Vakils, Feffer & Simons Ltd. India

Shiva – An Introduction – by Devdutt Pattanaik: Vakils, Feffer & Simons Ltd. India

Devi - The Mother-Goddess, An Introduction – by Devdutt Pattanaik: Vakils, Feffer & Simons Ltd. India

Ramayana – by Kamala Subramaniam: Bharatiya Vidya Bhavan, Mumbai.

Bhagavatam – by Kamala Subramaniam: Bharatiya Vidya Bhavan, Mumbai.

Mahabharata – by Kamala Subramaniam: Bharatiya Vidya Bhavan, Mumbai

Maha Bharata – by Amar Chitra Katha – 42 Comics in 3 volumes.

Jaya: An Illustrated Retelling of the Mahabharata – by Devdutt Pattanaik: Vakils, Feffer & Simons Ltd. India

These books are all available on Amazon.com. There are many more wonderful books available.